ight the following Hawaiian advices: olulu, March 3.-Every steamer that arrived here during the last two months has brought a number of steerage passengers who have seemed to have no visible means of support and no good reason for coming to the islands. This has occurred so often and dulu is becoming so over-run with strangers that the idea has become prevalent that they come in the interests of the ex-

It has been reported to the Government, and on seemingly good authority, that the agents of the ex-Queen have been recruiting men in both the United States and British Columbia, principally the latter. For some time the Government refused to believe such rumors, but of late suspicion has been aroused, and active steps have been taken to nip in the bud any plot that the Royallsts may have, or are fostering. It is claimed that a number of these men have enlisted in the army, and are ready, at the first sign of any trouble, to join the Royalists in an af-tack upon the Government. A bill was passed by the Councils on Thurs day last that will stop the coming of any more people of this class. It is to the effect that any alien who lands here must furnish good evidence that he comes with no intention of hostflity to the Government and that he must be able to show that he has means of supporting himself while here. Another bill that was passed the same day provides for the deportation of all persons w in the islands in relation to whom there probable cause to believe that they en tertain any unlawful intentions contrary to lished system of government. Such persons may be arrested and if found banished from the country space of six years or may imprisoned at hard labor for one year. A prominent Government official said yesterday that it was the intention of the Government to vigorously enforce this law and to stop the arrival of any possible help for the royalists. It is estimated that over 250 of these "suspects" have arrived since the first of the year.

THE UNION PARTY. the time of the revolution in January, 1893. has been disbanded and a new organization called the Union Party has been formed to take its place. This was done as the old club was growing too large to be satisfactorily managed. A platform has been adopted that is favorable to the support of the annexation cause and the Provisional Government, but is opposed to the Asiatic immigration bill now before the councils. This bill, which has already passed the second reading, provides for the admission of 5,000 more Chinese plantation laborers, and one plank in the new party's platform strongly favors the importation of Portuguese labor in the place of Chinese. The membership list of the party is becoming very large. has been disbanded and a new organization

The membership list of the party is becoming very large.

F. M. Hatch, who was formerly Vice-President of the Provisional Government and a member of the Advisory Council, has been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs in the piace of President Dole, who found the duties of both offices required too much of his time. The appointment of Mr. Hatch left a vacancy to be filled in the Advisory Council. For this there were three nominations, one made by the American League and two by the council itself. The latter two withdrew from the contest, leaving the league's candidate, D. B. Smith, alone in the race. It being generally understood that Smith was bound by an oath to the league that would conflict with his oath as Councilman, he was rejected by the councils by a vote of 6 to 4. The league is a secret organization and it is said to have threatened, if their own candidate was not elected, to overthrow the present Government. This, however, is not generally believed, although it is a well-known fact that the league is attempting to get a hold of the Government and to practically take power in its own hads.

STILL LOCKING FOR HELP.

STILL LOOKING FOR HELP. The Royalists claim to maintain a pacific attitude and positively deny that any Royalist gatherings take place. They have passed word around that news of great import to them is to arrive on the Oceanic, due here March 6. Their leaders are still very condent that the United States will right their their wrongs, and say they are not at all uneasy as to the final outcome of the matter. The labor question is assuming serious proportions, and is the white elephant on the hands of the Government. The Chinese residents had an immense mass-meeting, at which speeches were made and resolutions passed that protested strongly against the restrictions to be placed on their countrymen who will come to the islands if the bill now under consideration should become a law. These petitions are very severe, and require registration even more strict than that provided by the Geary act. Some of the leading Chinese merchants have openly announced their intention of calling on their Government for aid in the event of the passage of the law, and have more than hinted that a man of war would be sent to enforce their demands. They have aiready declared a boycott against a prominent local merchant, a member of the Advisory Council, claiming that he is working against their interests. They threaten other hoycotts against all the white merchants, and as many of the firms are largely dependent upon Chinese custom, this would entail a considerable loss. The Portuguese have also held a mass-meeting and protested vigorously against the interest. They openly asserted that they intend to fight to defend themselves against being driven out of the country by the Chinese. Some of their leaders have advised them to be ready to take up arms against the Chinese at any time. The Portuguese have are already declared as the provisional Government, and many of the Portuguese are Joining the annexation organizations.

BLOUNT'S, AUTHORITY. Secretary Herbert's Response to Bou-telle's Resolution of Inquiry.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10 .- Secretary Herbert has made response to the Boutelle resolution adopted by the House calling on him to state his authority for issuing instructions placing the armed naval forces of the United States and the use of its ensign un-der the orders and control of Special Comoner Blount at Honolulu, March 11, missioner Blount at Honolulu, March II, 1893.

The substance of the answer is that the action was necessary to prevent a conflict of authority, and that the Secretary's authority for issuing the orders was the President—
In Commander-In-O hief of the United States army and navy. A number of precedents for this action are cited.

The Secretary begins his answer by quoting the instructions to Admiral Skerrett and that part of Mr. Blount's credentials to President part of Mr. Blount's instructions (already published) are also quoted, and the Secretary cites the fact that when the order to Admiral Skerrett was issued the United States forces had landed in Hawaii and the United states flag had been raised over the public buildings in Honolulu. Secretary Herbert says:

"Under these circumstances, and in view of the remoteness of the Hawaii Islands from telegraphic communication, it was essential acise with reference to the disposition of the United States naval forces at Hawaii, but that such forces should be employed in entire harmony with and in support of the policy of the disposation of the Government. For these reasons, and in order that the Special Commissioner appointed by the Fresident might, in the discharge of the important duties intrusted to him, be aided by the full-policy of the displomatic branch of the Government, it was deemed proper to direct that Rear Admiral Skerrest should consult freely with Mr. Blount, and should carry out any instructions given him in resard to the course to be pursued by the United States in the Linted States in the United States in the United States in the United States of the United States in the United States in the United States in the United States of the United States in the United States in the United States of the Bawaii of the naval forces of the United States in the United States in the United States in the United States in the Un

United States naval forces at the Hawaiian Islands.

"I deem it to be at all times the duty of the naval forces of the United States, in matters affecting our foreign relations, to act in subordination to and in fullest cooperation with the policy of the civil branch of the Government and not to take the initiative in such matters, unless in accordance with the letter and spirit of such general or special orders as may be issued to them by the Secretary of the Navy or when required to do so in cases of special exigency by circumstances of such gravity and urgency as to admit of no delay. If the observance of this general principle is incumbent upon the naval forces of the United States in their relations with the diplomatic representatives in foreign countries under ordinary circumstances it becomes particularly important upon occasions when a direct representative of the President, charged with duties of a comprehensive, delicate and confidential character, is sent abroad.

"Belleving that the action taken by the department by its order of March 11, 1893.

comprehensive, deficate and confidential character, is sent abroad.

"Believing that the action taken by the department by its order of March II, 1893, was not only proper and necessary in order to preclude the possibility of any misunderstanding or conflict of authority which might have ensued in the serious embarrassment of American interests, and further that such action was in harmony with established precedent, I have to state in response to the direct inquiry contained in the resolution of the House, as to my authority for issuing the order in question, that said order was issued by authority of the President, who, by constitutional provision, is made Commanderin-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States."

In-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States."

Then the Secretary gives a number of precedents for his action, beginning in 1823 and running down to 1881. In 1823 the United States ship Enterprise was sent to Porto Rico and the commander was to "regulate his operations by the advice of Thomas Randall, agent of the Government."

During the Nexican war Nicholas Trest, an agent of the State Department, was clothed with power to arrange for a mutual suspension of hostilities, and Commodore Perry was instructed not to relax the vigor of his operations while he (Trest) remained in Mexico, "unless he directs you to suspend

The general impression is that the office of Recorder of Voters, which Mr. Carlisle will resign, will become vacant for the period of his unexpired term, which is about one year. Such, however, is not the case, as the old act was amended by the Legislature of 1889, and now the appointee to the position holds it for a term of four years unless he resigns or is removed. His successor is then appointed, not for the unexpired term but for a new term of four years from the date of appointment. This will make the office all the more eagerly spught after by the numerous applicants already in the field.

His political backing came mostly from his personal friends, and he has probably as many as any man in the city. I would indorse a friend who is an applicant for a place in the Post-office provided he is competent but further than this I will not go. Mr. Carlisle is responsible for the condut of his office and will have to give a large bond. Unless he is alone responsible for the appointments of his sub-ordinates he will meet embarrassment. If he takes my advice he will only suit himself in the appointments and select men who are competent and who are Democrats."

The President in speaking to-day about the St. Louis Postmastership said: "Mr. Cobb spoke to me as kindly of all the other candidates for Postmaster as he did of Mr. Carlisle. ## REVENUE IS LOST. TRIAL

Result of the Fight Being Made Against Beid.

MAYOR WALBRIDGE ISSUING BUILD-ING PERMITS FREE OF CHARGE.

Acting Mayor Nage Thinks This Is Carrying the Matter Too Far-Done by the Mayor So as Not to Recognize the Building Commissioner-News at the City Hall.

Another complication arising out of the Walbridge-Reid imbroglio has developed in the shape of permits issued for frame buildings within the fire limits of the city. custom has always been for the party desiring a frame structure within these limits to make application to the Mayor for a permit This application is referred to the Building Commissioner's office for investigation, the object being to ascertain if the property owners in the block object to it. It is then reported back to the Mayor, who in case a permit is granted, sends the applicant to the Bullding Commissioner's office where a regular building permit is is-sued and the usual fee charged. Since Mr. Reid has insisted upon being recognized as Building Commissioner after Judge Valliant's ruling and since Mayor Walbridge has concluded that the rul-ing of his little court is paraount there has been a determination in ignore the Building Commissioner's office entirely. Vouchers, pay rolls, repairs and almost everything have been held up by the Comptroller and President of the Board of Public Improvements. And now the Mayor's latest move has been to issue permits for these frame structures free, rather than have Mr. Reid's office acknowledged. Three of these permits have been issued, two by Mayor Walbridge and one by Acting Mayor Nagel, through instructions from Mayor Walbridge. One was to the Mound City Wrecking Co., one to the Central Lumber Co., and the third to the A. W. Stewart Commission Co. Two were for building one-story offices and the other for a storage lumber shed.

These buildings are all in process of erecthe other for a storage lumber shed.

These buildings are all in process of erection, and yet the city has not and will not receive a cent of revenue for the privilege granted.

Secretary Saunders explained the Mayor's action as follows: "Before the removal of the Building Commissioner by Mayor Walbridge the custom in this office, whenever any one applied to the Mayor for a permit to erect a frame building, was to refer the request to the Building Commissioner for investigation and recommendation, and then if the recommendation was a favorable one to issue the order to the Building Commissioner to give the permit. After the removal of Mr. Reid, when he insists upon remaining in the office of the Building Commissoner and when Mr. O'Reilly, the the Deputy and Acting Building Commissioner, refused to perform the duties devolving upon him by law, this arrangement was thrown into confusion, and for nearly two weeks all papers from the Building Commissioner's Office sent to this office were held here without action, asit would have been unlawful for the Mayor to recognize the signature of Mr. Reid as Building Commissioner, and Mr. Marshall, the City Counselor, had flustracted the Mayor that any business done by virtue of Mr. Reid's signature as Building Commissioner would be litegal. When the Supreme Court to pass upon itself, the Mayor decided to act upon this business in some wayso as to allow the people whose work was delayed to proceed with it, and he resolved whenever an application for a permit was sent to the Building Commissioner's office and returned with the signature of Mr. Reid and without the s And shortly before further that as o'Reilly persisted in his course of refusing to make recommendations, that he would not delay the business men applying for these permits by going through the useless form of referring the applications to that office if he was himself satisfied that the application was such a one as would be recommended by a conscientious be recommended by a conscientious building commissioner. He accordingly asked me to inform Mr. Nagel of this practice, and acting upon this information, Mr. Nagel has signed one such building permit since Mr. Waibridge left without referring it to the Building Commissioner's office. since Mr. Waibridge left without referring it to the Building Commissioner's office. These applications are very few and the loss to the city by the failure of the Building Commissioner to collect fees will not amount to $25 all told, before the Supreme Court decides finally upon the question before it and so gives the city a Building Commissioner who can act for himself."

When the attention of Acting Mayor Nagel was called to this it was evident that he had signed the permit simply because he had been requested to do it by Mayor Waibridge. When asked if the Building Commissioner's office was not in existence, he said: "Certainly it is, and the fact that this case is penaling before the Supreme Court is no excuse whatever for all this fuss between city officials. It should be stopped at once."

The point made by Secretary Saunders that the city will only lose about $25 is certainly a peculiar one.

The law provides that when a permit for the city will only lose about as a certain peculiar one.

The law provides that when a permit for erecting a building is issued a fee shall be collected, and if the Mayor assumes the functions of the Building Commissioner he should at least see that the city's revenue is collected in his office instead of in that office where it rightfully belongs.

Mr. Reid says his office is powerless to stop the erection of these buildings in the face of the erection of these buildings in the face of the Mayor's permit.

"He says he has no animus in my case. I think he is showing it with a vengence when he lets it get the better of his judgment to the extent of sacrificing the city's revenue to slight me."

James J. Butler Before the Court for Deadly Assault.

Jim Leary, the Prosecuting Witness, Called to the Stand.

PUT THROUGH A SEVERE CROSS-EXAMI-NATION BY LAWYER M'DONALD.

Names of the Jurors Selected to Try the Case-Opening Addresses of the Law yers for the Prosecution and Defense-Dr. Marks' Testimony as to the Bullet's Course.

Ex-City Attorney James J. Butler wa placed on trial in the Criminal Court this norning on a charge of assault to kill. The offense charged consisted of the shooting and serious wounding of James N. Leary, allas 'Seven-up Jim,'' in Ada Huntley's house, 2011 Chestnut street, about 3 o'clock on the morning of Dec. 26 last. The case was; first called at 10 o'clock either the defendant or his attorney being present. Only two witnesses answere their names when called, and the case was laid over. A few minutes later Attorney Marshall McDonald entered the court-room and announced that his client, the defend-ant, had been sent for and would arrive in a few minutes. True to his word, Mr. Butler entered the room about 10:20, accompanied by his father and several friends. His illness of the past two weeks has left him pale and much thinner than is usual. To his friends he stated that he felt well, but very weak. When questioned he said that he was confident that the outcome of the trial would result in a complete vindication for him, and he was anxious to get it over, "but," he added smilingly to the reporters, "there is almost too much interest taken in this case."

Jos. Judge, Clerk of the Criminal Court, is a personal friend of Butler's, and though he as been absent from his post for several days past on account of a severe attack of 'la grippe' and had been ordered by his physician to keep his bed, he insisted on being present this morning in his official ca-

SELECTING A JURY. The case was called again at 10:30 o'clock and the work of selecting a jury at once proeed with. Circuit Attorney Zachritz of the prosecution asked each man but a few ques tions, but Attorney McDonald interrogated them closely and carefully, indicating fense very clearly what line the de will pursue. The story told pursue. The story by Butler shortly after the shooting will be adhered to and an attempt will be made to prove self-defense, and that Butler shot while under the impression that Leary was reaching for a knife. Particular stress was laid upon the question as to whether or not the jury would acquit if they believed the defendant honestly thought his life was in danger even though it afterwards devel-oped that the man assaulted really had no

The work of selecting a jury was not completed by noon.
The jury selected was as follows: Frederick W. E. Best, Richard Boyle, John A. Cable, John H. Fentress, Clements Foster, Robert R. Houston, Leonard Farker. Lloyd H. Rickart, Robert J. Rolf, Charles W. Wenke, Ed Thierry. These were chosen from a panel of twenty-six examined.
Upon request of the Circuit Attorney witnesses for the defense as to facts were excluded from the room, those as to character being allowed to remain.
The Circuit Attorney then opened the case in a very few words, asking for an impartial total and briefly stating the prosecutions.

The Circuit Attorney then opened the case in a very few words, asking for an impartial trial and briefly stating the prosecution's side of the case. He promised to prove that the shooting was wholly unprovoked and was done in cold blood while Leary was sitting peaceably on the lounge.

Mr. Zachritz then proceeded to cail Dr. Marks as his first winess but was stopped Marks as his first witness, but was stopped by Marshall McDonaid, who said that he would like to address the jury himself before any testimony was given. Mr. McDonaid was if anything more given. Mr. McDonald was if anything more brief than the Circuit Attorney in his statement of the case. He dwelt upon the bad and dangerous character of Leary, the prosecuting witness, and said that he would prove that Butler was justified in shooting him as he did, and that he had received good and sufficient cause for shooting. and sufficient cause for shooting. DR. MARK'S CALLED.

Dr. Heine Marks, Superintendent of the City Hospital, was the first witness called, and he testified as to Leary's condition when admitted to the Hespital and the nature of his wound. The attorneys on both sides paid particular attention to the description which Dr. Marks gave as to the course of the which Dr. Marks gave as to the course of the bullet after entering the body.

Mr. McDonald experienced considerable difficulty in trying to secure an illustration from Dr. Marks as to the position in which the wounded man must have been at the time he was shot. Dr. Marks said that bullets were the most uncertain thing on earth and positively declined to give any opinion on the position in which Leary must have been placed. The builet, he said, struck a suspender buckle and probably deflected to some extent. LEARY GIVES HIS EVIDENCE.

"Monahan was there and struck me after I was shot. I grappled with him and then pitched forward on my head in a corner."

"Who shot you?"

"James J. Butler."

Leary then testified to being taken to the Dispensary in a hack and to being subsequently conveyed to the City Hospital.

On cross-examination the witness got considerable mixed up under the fire of questions put to him by Marshail McDonald. He was first questioned as to previous statements he had made regarding the snooting. "Have you ever made any statement of this affair different to the one you have just made?" he was asked.

"I have never made a statement before at all," was the reply.

"Have you never talked about the shooting before?"

"I have never testided before."

"Did you not make a statement before the Grand-jury?"

The question was strongly objected to by the Circuit Attorney, but was allowed, and the witness answered in the affirmative.

"And when Dr. Marks told you that J. J. Butler had acknowledged shooting you, did you not say he (Butler) was a ——llar?"

"No, I said he was a — fool."

"What was your object then in lying to Dr. Marks?"

"Men in my business don't tell the truth," was the composed reply.

"And that was your only reason—because you don't usually tell the truth?"

"That was my only reason."

A few more questions were asked the witness as to the same conversation with Dr. Marks, when court was adjourned for an hour.

At 20 Clock court was asked to be seen.

SHE WAS POISONED.

Revelations of the Post-Mortem on Bertha Belle Urner.

The Coroner to-day completed his investi Belle Turner, the 19-year-old colored girl who died on Thursday at 6108 South Broadway under suspicious circumstances. The young woman was in a delicate condition and it was at first supposed that her death was caused by a fall which it was alleged that she received three weeks ago. The post mortem held to-day shows that her death was due to poison, but how administered the inquest failed to disclose. The young woman's father, Henry Turner, is a well-to-do farmer owning his own farm near Lebanon. The girl was well educated, having attended school until last fail. She has been visiting the family of ite Bailey, a friend of the Turners, for the last tendays or two weeks and died at his house. Dr. S. T. Reber of 1891 South Broadway was called to see her on the day of her death. He found her in convulsions and gave her some whisky and hartshorn, but she died in fifteen minutes. The Baileys state that she complained of pains in her back ever since she bad been with them. Her father was sent for and he said that she had received a fall and Dr. Reber issued a certificate, stating that death was caused by peritonitis, caused by a fall. The Health Department yesterday refused to issue a burial certificate and referred the matter to Coroner Frank. The girl's father's statement was taken under oath, and the Coroner was about to approve of the certificate, when Acting Chief of Police Reedy received a telegram from Sheriff Langley of Beileville, asking that the case be investigated. The Coroner then ordered a post mortem, which was made to-day by Dr. Charles A. Frank, who stated that death was caused by toxemite convulsions following poisoning, supposed to be by strychnine. No evidence could be found, however, showing how she came to take the young woman's sparents went to Dr. Wagoner at Lebanon and wanted him to perform a criminal operation on her, but that the doctor refused. Turner dealed this and said that he was not even aware of his daughter's condition. A verdict in accordance with the post mortem home by Turner for burial. weeks ago. MISS POLLARD'S SUIT.

Further Testimony by Mrs. Blackburn and Others.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10 .- A part of yesterday atternoon was taken up with a continuation of Mrs. Luke Blackburn's testi-mony. She was shortly followed on the stand by Maj. Moore, Chief of Police of the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Blackburn testified, toward the close of her direct examination, that Mrs. Fillette had told her that Madeline Pollard had liberties in the house of Mrs. Fillette by inviting Charles Dudley Warner to call upon her there without asking her hostess by inviting Charles Dudley Warner to call upon her there without asking her hostess' permission.

Her cross-examination, conducted by Phil. B. Thompson, developed nothing new, and a part of the questions asked were declared by Judge Bradley to be "utterly immaterial."

When Mrs. Blackburn was asked why Col. Breckinridge had come to her the second time about his reported engagement to Mrs. Wing, she said that when Miss Pollard came to tell her of Col. Breckinridge had any self-respect, to drop him; that if he was determined to play the villain nothing Miss Pollard could say would prevent him. On bis next visit Col. Breckinridge had declared "sternly, emphatically and frequently" that the stories of his attentions to other women were the work of miserable cossips. Mrs. Blackburn had extended to Miss Pollard more protection than she otherwise would because Col. Breckinridge had asked her to, and she "believed him to be a gentleman."

Mrs. Blackburn said she had, last year, that she "washed her hands" of him because he permitted her to follow him about. Mrs. Blackburn identified two telegrams, signed by Mr. Breckinridge, notifying her of Madelline's address in New York.

Miss Mary Desha, sister of Col. Breckinridge, sirst wife, testified that she had first mot Miss Pollard at Lexington, Ky., in 1889, and next with Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle during the World's Fair. Questions were asked concerning the first wife of Col. Breckinridge, but the defense objected, saying that the marriage was not in dispute.

A light wicker basket was handed witness which she had presented to her sister, and on which were initials in her sister's handwriting.

"No cross-examination for her; she may stand saide." said Col. Breckinridge, with a year and mystand saide." said Col. Breckinridge, with a year and mystand saide." said Col. which she had presented to her sister, and on which were initials in her sister's hand-writing.

"No cross-examination for her; she may stand aside," said Col. Breckinridge, with a wave of his hand.

Maj. Moore, Chief of Police of the District of Columbia, was acquainted with both parties to the suit. He had warned Miss Pollard that she must not make threats at Col. Breckinridge's life.

On May 17, in witnesses' office, Col. Breckinridge had told him that the lady was pregnant through her relations with him; that she was going to New York to prepare for the event, and that he intended to marry her. "He saked me to witness his determination. We three clasped hands. It was an impressive scene," said the Major.

Miss Poliard had drawn from her bosom a revolver, declaring that if she had occasion to do so she would use it upon herself and him. The witness took it, Col. Breckinridge suggesting that he should return it to her as a Christmas gift, she telling him to give it to her on her birthday.

In opening the cross-examination Mr. Phil Thompson asked Mayor Moore for Miss Pollard's revolver.

A messenger was dispatched to the Chief's office for the revolver. Mr. Thompson was inclined to be facctious, saying in his quessions: "She threatened him with death, not with marriage. She threw up her little white hands, saying those were her only weapons."

"Her Iliy white hands." repeated Col.

white hands, saying those were her only weapons."
"Her lily white hands." repeated Col. Breckinridge, soto voce.
"Did she say that he had never seduced her?" asked Mr. Thompson, whereupon Miss Pollard cried "No!" shrilly, and her lawyers and friends devoted themselves to quieting her, which they were able to do with some difficulty.
"Not at that time," was Maj. Moore's answer to the question. One of the best reown physicians of the city, Dr. N. S. Lincoln, then testified that Col. Brackinridge had brought Miss Pollard to him in May, 180, representing that she needed attention, as the was unreasonably jealous and exceedingly nervous. Her delicate condition had been referred to, and Dr. Lincoln testified that he had said that one or two other physicians were required in her case.

Final Judgment On a Bond. Final judgment was ordered in the Crim-nal Court to-day against Frank K. Towler, who is surety on the bond of tom Bororhos, which is for $500, and which was forfetted some time ago. The bond was also in the Court of Criminal Correction.

The Situation Has One Very Interesting Feature-Should the Resolution Be Ad:pied Peffer Will Head the Committee on Investigation—He Will Be Turned Loose in Wall Street With Autocratic Powers-Senators Whose Names Are Implicated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10,-The scandals caused by the speculation of certain Senators in Sugar stocks culminated yester-day in the introduction of a Senate resoluion calling for a full investigation of the Senate Finance Committee began consideration of the sugar schedule. The resolution, which was introduced by Mr. Peffer of Kansas, caused a decided stir, and was the subfar as Mr. Pener is concerned, the denials of Messra. Vest and McPherson entered on Wednesday are avidantly not cloak-rooms during the day's session. So Wednesday are evidently not conclusive. The full text of the resolution is as follows:

TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION. Whereas, It is charged in many of the most influential and widely circulated newspapers rural press, that some one or more members of this body were actively participating in recent transactions on the New York Stock Exchange relating to the purchasing and seiling of shares of stock in an organization known as the Sugar Trust; and,

"Whereas, It is alleged in said newspapers and is being so copied in the rural press, that the said members of this body, in their own personal interest and for their own selfish purposes, made use of knowledge and infor-mation, procured by and through their official relations as Senators, to influence prices of shares in the Sugar Trust on the Stock Exchange in the transactions afore-

"Whereas, It is alleged, further, in the circulated among the people, that the said Senators did, by reason of the transactions above referred to and their connection therewith, acquire large gains and profits; and,

Whereas, The gravity of these charges and allegations is sufficient to require that they be fully, impartially and promptly investigated to the end that the truth concerning them may be ascertained and made known and the honor and dignity of the Senate preserved; therefore, 'Resolved, That a select committee of five members of the Senate be appointed by the te to proceed without unnecessary delay to make a thorough investigation of said charges and report the testimony and evidence with their conclusions thereon at as early a day as practicable, and the said comdence with their conclusions thereon at as early a day as practicable, and the said committee, or any sub-committee thereof, shall have power to send for persons and papers, to administer oaths, and perform all other duties usually lutrusted to committees of like character, and to employ a messenger, a clerk and a stenographer. The meetings of said committee shall be held it one of the committee rooms of the Capitol But aling or in some other suitable room in the building belonging to the Government, to be set apart temporarily for this purpose and properly supplied with furniture, stationery and other conveniences by the Sergeant-at-Arms; provided that in case the committee shall be of opinion that it would be conductive to a more complete and satisfactory examination of any relevant or material matter connected with the transaction out of which the investigation has grown that the full committee or sub-committee thereof should visit the city of New York, such visit may be made. The necessary expenses of said committee shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the Senate on the usual vouchers."

Mr. Quay, who was the first to the rescue, Philadelphia and Boston 50,802 tons of 2,240 inquired of the chair if a motion to take it up pounds each, which was an increase of 13,003 tons over the corresponding week of last year.

Senator Morrili then inquired if Mr. Peffer had any personal knowledge of the matter set forth in the resolution.

Mr. Peffer replied frankly that he had not; but he pointed out that the charges had been publicly made and were having a wide circulation, and he thought the Senate owed it to itself to dispose of them in a way that would satisfy the country.

The resolution was then ordered printed and to lie on the table. It will come up on Monday for reference.

The resolution was then ordered printed and to lie on the table. It will come up on Monday for reference.

Speaking to the Poest-Disparch correspondent on the subject to-day Mr. Peter said: "I intended to introduce the resolution on Thursday, but other matters occupied my time. My action is the result of no consultation with anybody. The charge made is one of the most serious that could be brought against a Senator and ought, I think, to be investigated. I have not decided whether I shail speak on the resolution. That will depend. I am anxious to have it passed, and if further explanation is necessary I may submit some remarks to the Senate."

The Committee on Contingent Expenses is the one to which the resolution will probably be referred. That committee next week will virtually consist of but one member, Mr. Camdan of West Virginia. The other members are Mr. White of Louisians, who retires from the Senate to-day, and Mr. Jones of Nevade, whose normal Senatorial condition is "out of town." What Mr. Camden will do after calling himself together and considering the resolution cannot at this time be stated.

An interesting Feature.

An interesting feature of the problem is that if the investigation is ordered Mr. Peffer, under the rules, will be appointed chairman of the committee, and as such will, under the terms of the resolution, invade wall street and beard the brokers in their dens. The prospect is considered an interesting one here. In contemplating it a prominent senator said to the Post-Dispatch prominent Senator said to the Post-Dispatch correspondent:

"While I do not agree with Senator Peter in many of his ideas concerning Wall street, I am inclined to think that to turn him loose in New York City, armed with full authority to send for persons and papers, which in that case would mean brokers and tickers and stubs and such things, would result in unearthing an interesting condition of affairs that would provehighly edifying to the country. His ylews of Wall street and its methods are well known, and it would be refreshing to see him stirring up the animals with a long pole. I have no idea what he could find, but I am absolutely certain that he would prosecute the inquiry thoroughly, and honestly endeavor to reach the truth. My idea is, too, that he would prove much more dangerous to the broker in a cross-examination bout than a trained lawyer would. I feel inclined to vote to send Peter over to New York City with the roying commission he desires."

SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS. the investigation, if it is ordered, will bring to light some sensational facts. It was the subject of gaseral remark yesterday that Senator Quay of all others, the man whose true character was long ago exposed by the press, should have the cool effrontery to try to kill the resolution of investigation. Both houses of Congress are stirred up, and for the time being the kumors are furnishing the chief subjects of distussion.

Although Senator Vest has denied that he had dabbled in the last stock, the report the sugar schedule in which Mr. Havemeyer was so vitally interested. This report has given rise to the question as to whether a senator with any regard for the proprieties should have any communication with any one interested in important legislation outside of the committee-room.

SENATOR BRIGE'S STATAMENT.

Senator Brice has made no statement in the Senator Brice has made no statement in the Senator. After the Senate adjourned on Thursday, the Ohio Senator said: "I have not been speculating in sugar in New York or elsewhere. The men who are manipulating the sugar stock are too slick for me, and I have studiously kept clear of them." Within five hours after he made this statement, however, he called upon the head of the Sugar Trust at the latter's hotel. And he was accompanied by the recognized head of the New England branch of the trust. These facts have not escaped attention, and moreover they have provoked no end of comment.

WAS VEST IMPLICATED?

A correspondent of a Western paper says in regard to reports that Senator Vest has been seculating in sugar: "Let us suppose a ate of affairs and see how nicely they would speculating in sugar: "Let us suppose a state of affairs and see how nicely they would permit Raccoon Vest to make his speech and still for all practical purposes live in a sugar hogshead, like Diogenes in his tub. And beforehand it might as well be stated that since kaccoon Vest's speech about liars some 1,000 people at the capital, including hundreds of House members and Senators, have, according to the test advanced by Vest, done nothing but lie. They still charge Raccoon Vest's with being in on sugar with all four paws. But suppose a gentle man whom we call Col. Rickey, because, of course, there is not any Col. Rickey, save in this supposition, should be told by Raccoon Vest, there is not any Col. Rickey, save in this supposition, should be told by Raccoon Vest, by virtue of this or that intended action in the Finance Committee about the sugar schedule, sugar stocks would go up; and suppose Raccoon Vest took such an interest in the accuracy of Col. Rickey's sugar information that he told him or wired him every twist, turn, phase, change and modification in the proposed sugar action of the Finance Committee a day before it took place. Raccoon Vest could easily do all this. for he is a sly, old experienced coon of long-standing. Or suppose the imaginary Col. Rickey, who has oceans of money and whom Raccoon Vest intrusts, we will suppose, with hoards of his own, went over and bought sugar doughtily. And then suppose Col. Rickey came back to Raccoon Vest with a bundle of money and split the said bundle with the honest everness of a just man. Suppose Col. Rickey and Raccoon Vest performed in this way, it would turn out nicely that Raccoon least would never buy or sell a share of sugar or any other stock, and of course rude people who said he did would be mallicious liars. The tariff and stock-gambling antics of the Senate are a scandal from one end of the Capitol to the other. Every man one meets says they ought to be investigated. And every man you meet, if he is a member of of either the House or Senate, turns ELKINS AND KERENS. The latest report here is that Stephen B Elkins and Richard Kerens were among the outsiders who recently profited by inside inoutsiders who recently profited by inside information about the sugar schedule of the Wilson bill. Both were in Washington at the time the market first took an upward tendency, and, according to this story, both went with the tide until it reached its flood, and pocketed handsome winnings. Elkins was working for a duty on coal at the time, but learning of the other good thing dropped *coal temporarily and played the sugar market. It is also stated that from first to last both Elkins and Kerens had the latest tips about everything of interest occurring in the revision of the Wilson bill.

HOW THE TRUST OPERATES. How the Sugar Trust operates to secure in-fluence in Congress is well illustrated by a story told here.

Every one is familiar with the reports about the trust contributions to the cam-paign funds of both parties in the last na-tional campaign. The trust is now getting in early with the Republican managers. It is stated that the trust sent $5,000 to the Re-publican managers to be used to promote the election of Representative Quiga, but that the money was returned with the statement that Air. Quiga "could not be embarrassed by accepting such a contribution." W. L. CROUNSE.

Eastern Ports.

New York, March 10.-The large number of vessels arriving at this port from the West Indies within the last two weeks has, in connection with the violent fluctuation in the stock of the sugar trust, attracted considerable attention. It has never before been lines to carry the sugar crop, but this season several of the Southern Pacific Co.'s boats

The rushing forward of the Cuba crop is alleged to be due to the fact that the crop is a casesively large and must be brought to market. That the crop is larger is shown by figures from Cuba, which give a production this season of 399,000 tons against 342,000 tons last year, and 326,000 tons for 1892.

For the first eight days of March, thirty-six vessels arrived at New York with sugar from Cuba and other West Indian ports and Brazil. This fleet was composed of ten steamers, inhe barks, one Drig and sixteen schooners, the noteworthy point being the number of the steamers, which, while decreasing the number of arrivals, carry much larger cargoes and accomplish more work at less expense than the smaller craft. The week's imports were valued a; 33,757,402 at the three ports, of which New York's share was $1,970,298.

In connection with the figures relative to

In connection with the figures relative to the market for and stock of cane sugars, it is interesting to note that there are at present 4,100 tons of beet sugar affoat from Hamburg for New York and freight room for 14,000 tons more has been engaged.

Directors of the Defunct National Bank of Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The directors of the defunct Commercial Bank of Brooklyn, some of whom are under indictment, may not be prosecuted owing to the fact that they have agreed to buy the worthless mortgages held by the institution and to pay the depositors every dollar due them. There are about 150 depositors, and they were to bring civil suits for damages, so the directors were forced to take the course they have.

If it can be shown that some of these mort-gages were not valueless, Cashier John T. Vall will be relieved of some of the biame put upon him.

the effects of the Thompson woman was a letter of recommendation, bearing the signature of Mrs. B. Aloe. When Mrs. Thompson was asked about this letter of reference, she declared that Mrs. A. S. It was on the strength of this letter and Mr. Sidney Aloe's photograph that Mrs. Thompson obtained employment at Mr. Heard's place on Bell avenue. Last night a lot of the property which the Thompson woman had brought to the residence of Mr. Joseph Traily, 4201A Marfitt avenue, some weeks ago and left there because she was going to be sick, as she said, was brought to the Fifth District station. It was packed in a trunk and two large boxes and a basket. Mrs. Aloe identified some of this property and Mr. Heard also found a lot of his possessions in this outfit. About $75 worth of this property belonged to Mr. Heard and this morning he caused the first warrant to be issued against the prisoner. The warrant charges her with grand larceny.

Mrs. Aloe has not as yet applied for a warrant, as she intends to wait until she has picked out all the property belonging to her. In addition to what she lias already found there is said to be any amount of the property belonging to her. In addition to what she has already found there is said to be any amount of it still to be found at the Thompson woman's house. This place is a one-story brick cottage of two rooms and a kitchen, and contains the finest kind of furniture, carpets, bric.a-brac and other stuff. There are five large dressers, every large drawer of which is closely packed with dresses and wearing apparsiof the finest kinds. In some of these drawers fine glass and porcelain ware elegantly decorated are stored. In an old-fashioned but rich china case Mrs. Thompson has packed dishes enough for nearly five families. Mrs. Aloe estimates her loss at about $1,590. Among the property stolen from her residence is a box of mother-of-pearing poker chips, which could not be purchased on this sile of the Alontic. These were presented to Mr. Aloe, now deceased, by Lamnre, the French optician, at Paris. They were found in a box at the Thompson residence. The sait of Noritz J. Dobschatz and others against the Laclede National Bank of St. Louis which has been pendin in the United States Circuit Court, was demissed by Judge Thager to day without prejudice to the complainants' right to sue the estate of Jeptha H. Simpson for p.000. The Judge expressed it as his opiniogithat the note of $1,000 dated March 2, 1896, made by Dobschutz and wife, was delivered to the Laclede Bank by Simpson on May 5, 1891, as collateral security for an indebtedness which was renewed from time to time during Simpson's lifetime, the collateral note being held in pledge by the bank on Sept. 12, 1892, when Dobschutz claims to have paid it. The court held that Simpson had no actual authority after he had pledged the $1,000 note, to collect the principal on behalf of the bank. The conclusion was drawn that as a matter of law the bank is entitled to hold and collect the $1,00 note of Dobschutz, together with interest from Sept. 12, 1892, even though Dobschutz paid to Simpson the amount due on the note on Sept. 12, 1892, the maker of a note, when he pays it, has a right to demand a return of the note, and if he neglects to de so and pays to the wrong party without taking up the paper, it does not extinguish his liability to the right-ful owner and holder.

quite a scene in the second District Police Officers Keeshan and O'Brien with disturbing the peace and had Lawyer Bob Goode in court to defend her and half a dozen of her friends on hand to testify in her behalf. On the stand officer Keeshan testified that he arrested Essie at her house, 713 North Twelfth street on Feb. 19 for using vile language and attracting a crowd of several hundred people to the front of her house by her fighting. Officer several hundred people to the most of her house by her fighting. Officer O'Brien's testimony was substantially the same. Essie told another story. She said that Officer Keeshan had it in for her, and when he came to her place on the Monday in question began to guy her for going down to Capt. Joyce and complaining that he was persocuting her. She talked back, and he pulled her out of the house. Then she fainted, and the officer kicked her while she was down. She admitted that when she revived she did call the policeman vile names. Attorney Bob Goode demanded the discharge of his client on the grounds that she did not disturb the yeace until the officers disturbed her. The Judge believed the officers, however, and said he would fine her Sh. When he announced this decision, Essie created a scene by suddenly collapsing and falling from the witness chair to the floor of the court-room in a faint.

A deputy marshai picked her up, and a woman from the spectators' benches rushed ini to her assistance. It was four or five minutes before she revived and then she was led out. As she reached the rear of the court-room she screamed and fainted again and was carried into Marshai Henry Erb's private office, where it was some time before she recovered.

A Woman Claims to Have Been Ass Near Jefferson Barracks.

News of a brutal outrage in the vicinity Jefferson Barracks last night reached Caron delet this morning. Night Operator Taylor of the Jefferson Barracks railroad station was startled about 10 o'clock last night be the entrance of a woman about 80 years of age who seemed to be in great pain. she stated that she had started to walk from St. Louis to Hot Springs, Ark., and that she had been assaulted by five men a half mile north of the Barracks station. Three of the men, she said, had outraged her. She was very weak and showed signs of having been through a violent struggle: Her dress, which was of blue material trimmed with white braid, was torn in many places and covered with dirt from the sculle. The woman begged to be permitted to remain at the station for the remainder of the night, and this morning she concluded to give up her journey to Hot Springs and waiked back to St. Louis. There is little doubt that the men who assaulted her were tramps. The woman's name could not be ascertained, but from the reports she gave of herseif she was in a bad way. Aside from being in a delicate condition she stated that her journey to Hot Springs was in hopes of getting cured of a disorder. from St. Louis to Hot Springs, Ark., and

A DEMOCRATIC PROTEST.

We reprint to-day some extracts from the Democratic State press on the subject of the approaching Democratic Conven tion. They are interesting reading for all Democrats, but especially for the politicians who are trying to manipulate the Democracy of Missouri in the interest of the Administration mechine and the corporations.

These extracts show that the men wh constitute the bone and sinew of the Democratic party of the State are taking alarm. They see good reason to fear a political job in the arrangement to hold the convention at an exceptionally early date, and in the many indications that the Administration politicians and the railroad attorneys are getting together for mutual benefit.

The date of the convention is objected to because the farmers are busily engaged at their spring work and have no time now to give to politics. Little time is given for organization and preliminary work, so that all the advantages will be on the side of the professional politicians, the officeholders and the political railroad attorneys. The action of the committee is regarded as a sort of snap arrangement for a snap convention, which will enable the railroads and the Administration machine to work out their will before the voters can take steps to protect themselves and the party.

But there is a deeper significance in the expressions of the Democratic press. They indicate widespread and intense feeling among the Democrats against any attemp to coerce the party into subservient re pudiation of its principles or into direct or indirect condemnation of representatives who have been faithful to their trusts There is also deep-seated jealousy of any railroad manipulation of the party.

The railroad attorneys and cuckoo politicians may take warning that if they succeed in manipulating the convention and the party organization in their interests they will have an unpleasant account ing with the voters at the polls.

A MUNICIPAL SUBWAY.

The prospects for a municipal subway pught to be considerably improved by the bold stand taken by the Western Union The refusal of that company to put its wires under ground, except upon its own terms and in its own conduit, reduces the issue to the question whether all the wires shall be put in one conduit owned and operated by the city, or each company shall as it chooses and when it chooses tear up the streets and occupy whatever space it may be able to grab.

The latter of these alternatives is not to be entertained for a moment. Besides the repeated disturbances of the streets there would be franchise bills necessary for each of the corporations. These would have the usual experience of franchises granted to private corporations to perform public ser,vices. Like most similar bills in the past blackmailing. In the interest of morality and decency we cannot afford to consider any more franchises of this character. But besides the corruption which will be sure to follow the passage of private subway legislation, it should be remembered that little or no revenue can be expected from the companies if each of them builds and maintains its own conduit. This by itself ought to be conclusive against such a policy both with the Assembly and the tax-payers. A municipal subway can be made a revenue producer of constantly growing value. There are legal and financial preliminaries to arrange before the city can undertake the work, but if the proper energy and intelligence are emloyed these can be easily cared for. The work can be done a block at a time, if no faster, and as it is completed the wires buried. And with every advance there will be a reduction of the tax-payers' burdens, which are already too heavy. As for the cool notice from some of the vire companies that they will not go into municipal subway, it may be said that the corporations are not yet supreme, notanding the case with which they have hitherto got what they wanted from

THE SENATORIAL INVESTIGATION.

When thieves fall out honest men got heir dues. Hence the resentment in Wall street against certain United States Sentors will be of public service should the Peffer resolution for an investigation of enatorial morality be adopted.

Senators whose names have been connected with the recent speculation in Sugar Trust shares cannot afford to oppose this resolution. They cannot afford to do anything but support it with all their might. Public attention has been thoroughly aroused by the scandal and only the most hardened and brazen politician can treat the matter with "an amused smile."

The investigation will be useful not only to fix the guilt or innogence of the accused Senators, but to throw a flood of light upon the methods employed by large moneyed interests in getting through legislation antagonistic to the public welfare. Evidence has been accumulating for several years past that in the opinion of many eminent politicians statesmanship is only a matter of finance, private finance at that, and the sooner we get a few "object lessons" the sooner shall we be in a position to check the flood of corruption which, if not stopped, will overwhelm the country. The Senate and every other legislative assembly in the country must be purged of members retained in private interests, stockholders in corporations or partners in firms asking favors of the Government, before legislation can be disinterested and solely for public purposes and for the public welfare If this investigation is made thorough if it is designed as anything but a white washing dodge, it can be made the first step towards better morals and a finer sense of honor than now prevail in public

MODEST GENIUS.

The laurel wreath which was woven to adorn the over-hanging brow of the poetpolitician of the Republican State League is withering on the shelf. No one has claimed this reward of well-earned fame. The Rolla Herald still insists that B. Frank Russell, the "Poet of the Ozarks." who edits the Steelville Mirror, is responsible for the beautifublines, which promise to march with "invincible tread" down the long corridors of time. But no admission of his responsibility has been wrung from Mr. Russell. He is saying nothing. Not a line of blushing confession or indignant denial has appeared in his paper. Whether this silence is to be interpreted as silent contempt for an unjust charge or excessive modesty with respect to an unexpected honor, can only be determined by a comittee of Mr. Russell's intimate friends, Until the truth is out he is entitled to the benefit of the doubt.

The truth is the Herald casts uncertainty on its assertion as to the authorship of the platform by its suggestion of the evidence by which it arrived at its conclusion. It declares that it can tell the author by his ears. The ear-mark test is wholly unreliable when applied to a Republican league convention where one pair of ears differeth not from another. No ordinary ass could have evolved such a masterpiece of political prose poetry. We wonder at the modesty of a man who. being capable of creating this tchef d'ouvre of platform eloquence, shrinks from re ceiving the meed of public recognition which is his due.

THERE is gloom all over the nation at the failure of our first attempt at a Rotten Row in Washington, but our Anglomaniacs must not be discouraged by single failure. Lord Pauncefote, in his high-backed victoria, and the Chinese they would be the signal for boodling and Minister, with an imposing equipage, did their best to make the thing a success Our home swells were out in large num bers, and had it not been for the appear ance of sundry plebeian persons and ve hicles everybody would have been happy The attempt of the barbers and butche to make the procession all that could be desired was well meant, however, and Lord Pauncefote was scarcely justified in deserting the pageant so early, as the loss of an Ambassador on such an occasion must necessarily dampen the ardor of all the other great people. The German Baron who acted as an outrider, hunching his back and at intervals per mitting the daylight to steal between hi brief coat-tails and the saddle, deserved great credit for his efforts and the amuse ment he afforded. It may take a large police force to establish a Rotten Row in whim of his own, whether Washington, but it can be done. Almost anything rotten goes in a national capital.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS.

From the Mexico Intelligencer. There is no more possibility of the Demo cratic State convention which is to assemble in Kansas City, May 15, indorsing the finan cial policy of Mr. Cleveland than there is of Chauncey I. Filley being the Democrati nominee for Governor of Missouri in '96.

The Democrats of the "rural districts" will see to it that the delegates who go up to the Kansas City convention are not impregnated with gold-buggism or mugwumper The constituents of those Senators and Rep resentatives from Missouri who have stood true to the old faith of Democracy will see to it that they are not "turned down" at the Kansas City convention. Development within the past few days would seem to war rant apprehension of an endeavor in that direction, but it will fail of accomplishment and if the call for an early convention was nade with that end even remotely in view i might as well be abandoned. The schem is believed to have been originated in Washington, and the main purpose of it is to de-United States Senate. We think that what are thoroughly examined it will be found to have a rather suspicious appearance.

From the Sedella Democrat. The early date at which the Democratic State Convention was called to meet in Kansas City, with various and sundry indication eside, has led many Democrats to fear that a scheme is on foot to rush through that con dard policy of the President and the Eastern senators and Congressmen who have loyally remained true to the sentiment in favor o ilver coinage so often expressed by the De mocracy of Missouri. The convention is called to meet nearly six months before the election and at a date when the farmers of the State—the bulk of the party-will be busy in the fleids.

Under such circumstances it would be pos-sible for a few industrious politicians in each county to secure the election of good but cure their proxies to be used in capturing the convention and indorsing the Eastern Democracy.

To merely state the danger ought to be ufficient to defeat the scheme. If the scheme is attempted and any ambiand the Missouri Congressmen with a reso lution indorsing the war upon silver ther the real sentiment of the Missouri Demo crats will find utterance and the schemers and tricksters will be scourged into retire ment until they learn the principles and tenets of the party.

The early date of the State Convention

May 15, and the location, Kansas City, seem to have been especially selected for the purpose of wringing from the people of Missour! an indorsement of the Administration. The Missouri Democracy is opposed to the policy which the Administration has been pursuing in the demonetization of silver, the issuing of bonds, the keeping of Republicans in of fice, and for a great many reasons, and the State convention cannot afford to set the seal of its approbation to such a policy.

Further, this might be called a snap convention for the purpose of continuing those in power who are already there. Francis, Wolf & Co. are seeking to hold the Demohinery and offices, but must be headed in the move.

Let Clinton County send to this convention onservative, free coinage men.

From the St. Joseph Gasette. If it should transpire that 'the Democratic State Convention was called at so early a date—May 15—in furtherance of a plan by to commit the party to an indorsement of the financial policy of the Administration, a surprise is in store for the conspirators. An overwhelming majority of the Demorats of Missouri are opposed to the financial views of the President, and regard the course pursued during the first year of his Administration as a violation of pledges solemnly made and a renunciation of the platform. We neither deny nor affirm the charge that an early convention was called for the purpose of taking snap-judgment on the Democratic masses. The face of the proceedings wears ar look. The a time the farmers will be very busy. Two-third; of them will be in the corn fields. Times are hard, and many will not feel inclined to bear season when they must also sacrifice time that ought to be devoted to the spring plant ing. Proxies will be obtainable by the ask. ing. It is an off year, and national politics and national policies have so occupied the attention of the people during the past few onths that little attention has been paid to state affairs. Candidates for the State offices to be filled have made no canvass, and some of them are unknown outside their own neighborhood. Under such circumstances it only necessary to bear in mind the activit y of the dispensers of free passes on the railoads to be assured that, whatever notive which led to the extraordinary action of the State Central Committee, it was unwise, and should be revoked.

Hill's Fight.

From THE NEW YORK WORLD, Senator Hill proposes to meet the Republi-can deficiency by additional or higher tariff axes. Perhaps, in addition to restoring the duty on sugar, he would reimpose a duty on tes and coffee. This would provide the necessary revenue. But it would make the family of a workingman pay as much towards the support of the Government as the family of a millionaire. This result would exactly suit the class that is objecting most loudly to an income tax. But this small class of rich tax-dodgers is not the one with which Senator Hill has hitherto amiliated.

To the Editor of the Post-Disposeh:

I wish to say a few words regarding the telephone monopoly in St. Louis. That the telephone subscribers of the city are being on will be apparent as I pro city of that country. Montreal has a population of about 22,000 and St. Louis about 600,000, or it is nearly two and one-half times the size of the Canadian town. The Canadians are a proverbially slow people, but when it comes to telephones St. Louis is not in it with a city up there much inferior both in size and importance. The reasons for this were not hard to find out. The first and ali-important one is that St. Louis subscribers pay exactly double for their telephones per annum what the Montrealers pay. A telephone for business purposes in Miontreal costs 850 per annum, in St. Louis $100; for a residence in Montreal 880 per annum, in St. Louis $100; for a residence in Montreal service is very much more useful than that in St. Louis and vastly superior lits workings on account of the large number of telephones, while in St. Louis there are not 3,800. Mr. Durant of the local office said lately that the cost of telephone subscription is greater where there are the most exchanges, and he gave this as a reason for the high rates in St. Louis. There must be something wrong, because there are certainly more exchanges where the greater number of telephones exist, and still Montrealers pay exactly half of what St. Louisans pay. Then I know from personal experience that I used the telephone while in Montreal yery much more than I do my own in St. Louis for the reason that there are more subscribers. In fact, everyone seems to have a telephone there. The ratio of one telephone for every forty people speaks unfavorably for St. Louis where there is one to 188.

Over 300 towns in the Province of Quebec can be reached from Montreal by telephone, while St. Louis has connection with less than one-sixth this number of outlying towns. Montreal is connected with points over 200 miles away on the ordinary circuit. Nothing of this kind is known here. Then such things as desk telephones are provided in business offices; such a convenience we never see in St. Louis. The constant buzzing which is an everiasting annoyance in the local service does not exist in the Montreal service even during the heaviest snowstorms, as I found from personal experience. The plea of the local company that the buzzing comes from overhead wires seems totally unfounded, because the wires in Montreal are all overhead.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I will show the financial side of the telephone business in the Dominion of Canada for the year ending Dec. 31, 1893. The gross earnings for that year were $661,174 and total expenses $263,838, leaving net earnings amounting to $724,791. year were $561,174 and total expenses $236,838, leaving net earnings amounting to $724,791. The capital stock is $2,421,000, the net earnings equaling 30 per cent on same. In looking over this showing it should be borne in mind that all business enterprises in that country are greatly handlcapped by heavy taxes and Governmental regulations. The above figures simply show how we telephone subscribers are being robbed. Under such circumstances Mr. Durant has no room for complaint as to the expense of placing the telephone wires underground. It would be a good idea, by the way, for the local company to be compelled to show up its gross earnings and expenses.

Trusting that 1 have not encroached too much upon your valuable space, Mr. Editor (but all with a most laudable purpose), I remain, hall it be done?

Local Option for St. Louis.

The petition of about 9,000 of the registered shall it be done?
The petition of about 9,000 of the registered voters of the city of St. Louis will compel a local option election in the city of St. Louis. There are about 15,000 Protestant voting church members and about 10,000 Catholic voting church members in the city. Out of this mass of 25,000 voting church members cannot there be found 9,000, who are willing to save their own sons and the sons of their fellow-citizens from drunkards' graves?
Undoubtedly there are many thousands not church members who will joyfully sign such a petition. Citizens generally will be the more free to sign such a petition, as the election cannot be held within sixty days of any general or local election; it is therefore a strictly non-partisan election and no political party, as such, can take any hand in it.

The only thing which can appear on the political party, as such, can take any hand in it.

The only thing which can appear on the bailots is: "Against the sale of intoxicating liquers," and "For the sale of intoxicating liquers," and event of both sentences being printed on the same ticket, the words, "Erase the clause you do not want."

The impression prevails that a local option law has been declared to be inoperative by the courts. This is an error. A compliance with the letter of the law will insure election, and, as the law itself has been declared to be constitutional, its enforcement is dependent upon the authorities in power and public opinion.

Young Democrats.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: I would like to see the young business men take a lively interest in politics. The so-called young men's movement is nothing but a fake. A few young men holding pobut a fake. A few young men holding political offices seeing that their old boss has no earthly chance to be re-elected are trying to infuse new blood into the party, thereby strengthening their own chances for being retained in their own chances for being retained in their positions under the new reign. Now is the time for the young men to get together and form their ward organizations and be prepared to fight the greatest enemy the Democratic party has, that is, the Central Committee. Overthrow that machine and you will place the Democratic party where it belongs, "a party of the people." I would like to see the Young Men's Democratic Club take hold of this and pash it through. They can get the support of the young and old voters if they will, just try and down the crars who control the politics of this city. Hoping they will try and organize for this purpose, I remain,

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY CLUB. Its Hop for the Fund Benefit Was a Delightful Success. The dance given by the Junior Assembly at dr. John A. Mahler's hall, 3204 Lucas avenue, last evening for the benefit of the Lake Employment Fund was a delightful success. Fully fifty young couples, the sons and daughters of St. Louis' first families, were present in the dainty ball room, and as the present in the dainty ball room, and as the handsomely costumed pretty girls and their gallant escorts "chased the glowing hours with flying feet" they made a picture of grace and beauty that was bewildering in its loveliness. The Junior Assembly is a dancing Club of about forty members, which meets at Mahler's fortnightly under the patronage of Mmmes. Light. Rumsey, Joseph Dickson, Selwyn Edgar, Wm. Stickney and Arthur Gale. Last night's party being for a charitable purpose, tickets were sold to a number of the friends of the regular members. Master of Ceremonies John A. Mahler announced the first waitz at 8-15 p. m., after which the following programme of dances followed:

followed:
Waltz, Etwo-step, waltz, militaire,

LAKE FUND LUNCH ASSOCIATION The Ladies in Charge of the Work Greatly

Encouraged by Generous Support. The ladies engaged in the task of serving lunch to the unemployed laborers, who have been given work on the new lake at Forest Park, feel greatly encouraged by their success, not only in ministering to the necessities of the workmen, but also by the sympathy and cordial support which they have received morally as well as substantially from the citizens of St. Louis. Thus far they have been abundantly supplied with food, bread, coffee, sugar, milk and meat, and have not yet oeen obliged to encroach upon the money which has been generously given by those who could not devote their time to the work. Mahy others have promised supplies as they need them, and quite a number of entertainments are on foot for the increase of the cash fund, all of which will be needed before the work is concluded. At a called meeting, held at Mrs. A. Js. Lindsay's last week, there were quite a number of volunteers to assist in the good work, a gratifying fact, since the force of indies in attendance upon the ground must be frequently changed, in order to prevent the burden weighing too heavily upon the few enthusiastic souls who took the matter in hand, determined to go through with it regardless of all personal discomfort. Mrs., James M. Franciscus, Jr., who is President of the board, reports a most gratifying state of affairs. Every day the committee of ladies appointed has been at its post, rain or shine, and those in charge now have the work so systematized that they feel able to feed any number of men that may be employed. On Monday they supplied over 620 men with a bucket of coffee and sandwiches in less than half an hour. On Tuesday, in the midst of the continued downpour of rain, the ladies were all upon the ground ready for their services. This is purely a non-sectarian work. Men of all races and religious and of no religion at all are feed, because they are hungry end in need of the food, and the cooperation of all good, charitally-disposed wonen is desired for this stupendous undertaking. Twenty-one prisoners, who were indicted yesterday by the Grand-jury, were arraigned in the Criminal Court to-day. Arthur Duestrow, the wife and child murderer, was not among them.

The reason of this is twofold. First, owing to a clerical error in making out the indict. ment, and also to a point of law. In filling in the date of the crime, which was on Feb. 14, the word harch was inserted instead of February. This renders it necessary to have a new indictment brought, which will be done on Monday. Had the indictment been regular, however, Duestrow could not be arraigned to day. The law provides that in capital cases a copy of the indictment must be read to the accused forty-eight hours before he or she is arraigned. The indictments, including Duestrow's, were returned at 1:15 p. m. yesterday. Duestrow could not therefore be arraigned until Monday under any circumstances.

Marriage of Miss Virginia Bonynge and Viscount Derhurst. LONDON, March 10.-The marriage of Miss Virginia Bonynge, step-daughter of Charles courts. William Bonynge of California, to Viscount Deerhurst, eldest son of the Earl of Coventry, took place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in All Saints' Church, Enhismore Gardens.

Among the officiating clergymen was the Rev. Ravenscroft Stewart, the Vicar, and the Rev. Hugh Bennett, Vicar of Croome, the estate of Lord Coventry. The service was fully choral. The church was crowded with a representative and brilliant assemblage, which included Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, many of the American colony and numerous representatives of the English aristocracy.

The bride, who was attended by four bridesmaids, viz: Lady Barka Coventry, Lady Booth Coventry and Lady Alice Coventry, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Angelita Maxwell and a page, looked charming. She wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin, and her toilet included a priceless fichu of old crown lace, the present of Princess Christian. in All Saints' Church, Enhismore Gardens.

CHAIRMAN CARTER'S PLAN.

Gen. Powell Clayton Expiains Why He Is Against It.

Gen. Powell Clayton, who has been in Chicago for the last few days on business con-nected with Eureka Springs, Ark., where he resides, is in St. Louis to-day. He arrived yesterday and will return to-night to Chi-

Gen. Clayton is deeply interested in the discussion that Chairman Carter has aroused by proposing to change the basis of representation at national conventions.

'So far as i understand the matter,' said Gen. Clayton, 'Jar. Carter proposes to have the National Executive Committee change the basis of representation as far as Congressional district delegates are concerned. He would make it depend upon the Republican vote cast at the last presidential election.
'I am opposed to that for two reasons. First, the committee has no power to change the basis of representation. Its powers are derived from the national convention. As the convention has never delegated that power, the committee cannot exercise it. liscussion that Chairman Carter has aroused derived from the national convention. As the convention has never delegated that power, the committee cannot exercise it. At the national convention in 18s4 this question was fully discussed. The sentiment was found to be so much against a similar proposition that the mover, Mr. Bishop of Massachusetts, was compelled to acknowledge that fact, and he withdrew his proposal. What the Republican party in convention assembled refused to do, no mere creature acting as a committee can now do unauthorized. "Secondly, conceding the legality of the change, I deny its expediency. It is a well-known fact that hundreds of thousands of Republican voters are practically disfranchised in southern States. If Mr. Carter's plan prevails his basis of representation, so far as the South is concerned, will be made on these false and fraudulent returns. "Is the Republican party willing to supplement Democratic disfranchisement in national conventions? Certainly not. "Again, the representation for the State at large should be subjected to the same reasoning. Why should Nevada, with 2,811 Republican votes, carry the Same weight as the state of New York? You see this question of equalization is a very far-reaching one and one that the party must settle in national conventions and not in a committee, where Nevada, the District of Columbia and the Territories have each as much voice as Ohio, Pennsylvania or New York."

LONDON, March 10 .- Mr. H. J. Tenant, private secretary to Mr. Henry Asquith, the Home Secretary, and son of Sir Charles Ten-Home Secretary; and son of Sir Charles Tenant, will be the Liberal candidate for the seat in the House of Commons representing the Berwyck-on-Tweed division of Northumberland, in opposition to Sir. C. B. Baifour. Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, recently Foreign Secretary to the Government of India, who was at the head of the British Mission which last year visited the Ameer of Afganistan at Caboul, has been appointed British Minister at Teheran in succession to Sir F. Judge Saunders

Says that For Rheumatism

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Best Remedy He Ever Took.

Judge T. H. Saunders

Rheumatism is a very painful affliction, and he who finds a remedy which will give relief, much more a cure, is justified in proclaiming the merits of that medicine that others simliarly afflicted may learn how to be cured. Judge T. H. Saunders of Osceola, Neb., senior vice-commander and present com mander of J. F. Reynolds Post, No. 26, G. A. R., voluntarily writes:

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. : "Dear Sirs: I was in the army four years, in and about Richmond, Va. In 1864, while at City Point, Va., I was wounded, and contracted sciatica and rheumatism. I have suffered ever since, and have been treated by physicians most of the time. 1 lost the use of my left leg and side, and have tried almost every medicine known, besides the treatment given to me by my physicians, and I think I have the best in the country, but I failed to get relief. Every spring I was flat on my back, and must say that

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Best medicine I have ever taken. It has done me the most good. It was recommended to me for rheumatism, and I am satisfied and know that it will do all that you claim for it. I do that it will do all that you claim for it. I do not want to say that it will raise a fellow from the dead; but it will come nearest to Hood's Sariis Cures doing it of any medicine I have ever known or used, and I expect to keep it in my family as long as there is one of us left. I have recommended it to every person who is afflicted." T. H. SAUNDERS, Oscoola, Nebraska.

inent professor, connected with one of the leading New York hospitals. Continuing, he said:

"It is not these things that are troubling people, but it is an advanced form of our old enemy, the rip. People feel out of sorts, sneeze, have pains in the muscles and bones, haveno appetite, lose all interest in the wold and wonder what is the matter. It is the artip; nothing else.

"Now, all such symptoms need to have prompt treatmelt. The attack must be met and repelted at once, or it is certain to run into somehing serious. I know of but one way to certainly avoid these troubles which are now so common, and that is, to immediately counteract them by using a good, oure, strong stimulant. Nothing of the oddinary kind, but something pure and scientific. For this purpose nothing the sever equalled buffy's Pure Mait Whisky, which is acknowledged to day by physicians and scientific people to be the only pure, medicinal mait whisky upon the market."

The words of the professor are true and they carry a wonierful meaning to many men and women who are suffering with the first symptoms of grip, or else grip in its advanced stages. For all such people we offer a work of advice; which is to take the best menns to overcome these troubles and do not permit any dealer to swerve you from your purpose to have that which has proven itself by years of use, to be the best and purest stimulant in the market.

Lascelles, who has as already cabled, been transferred to St. Petersburg.

Evicted Tenants' Bill.

DUBLIN. March 10,-The Freeman's Journal says that the proposed bill for the relief of the evicted tenants will be mentioned in the Queen's speech to be delivered at the forthcoming opening of Parliament, and adds that t will be pushed vigorously through the House of Commons.

THE STEAM TURBINE Will Probably Soon Be Used on Small Navel Craft.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10 .- In view of the successful results that have followed the use of the steam turbine as a motive power the successful results that have followed the use of the steam turbine as a motive power for dynamos it is probable that before long an attempt will be made to substitute them for the engines used to propel small naval craft, such as torpedo boats and launches. For some time past this novel form of motor has been used in the navy to spin the gyroscopic wheels that propel the Howell torpedo as they afforded the only reasible means of obtaining the great velocity required. But their use has been very much restricted, owing to the belief that they were wasteful contrivances. Recently, however, certain improvements have been made, notably in the use of superheated steam, which cannot be used in ordinary engines, and the result has been the attainment of a surprisingly high degree of economy, making these engines rank with the best of the reciprocating type.

The one practical difficulty in the adaptation of the steam turbine to boat propulsion is the necessarily high speed of the motor, the lowest economical speed of existing lines being about 5,000 revolutions per minute. This obliges the engineers to use reducing gearing to secure a proper speed for the screw propellers. Otherwise the turbine is believed to have many points of advantage over reciprocating engines, as it is light, occupies very little space, and that altogether in the bottom of the boat, is very simple in construction, almost without wear and is noiseless. These are all valuable considerations in a torpedo boat and especially the ease of running, as the excessive vibration of the present type of engines is very injurious to them and to the hulls of the boat and necessitates frequent and extensive repairs.

THE COLUMBIAN LEAGUE.

A New Organization Which Will Fight the A. P. A. MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 10.-Fifty thouand dollars has been raised by the Columplan League, recently organized here by Catholics, to combat the influence of the A.

P. A. The money will be expended in the distribution of literature calculated to decrease prejudice against the Catholics. A mass meeting will be held by the league in the Standard Theater March 14. The A. P. A. will hold a meeting in the Academy of Music one night previous:

Bolter Dunnhy.

NEW YORK, March 10 .- Last night Congressman E. J. Dunphy of the Second District was waited upon by a committee of trict was waited upon by a committee of Tammany men. He declined to return to the organization from which he recently boiled. After reading the charges preferred against him by Alderman Nick Brown and Mayor Gilroy, he visited the clubs, where he found he was a very popular man. He met the Grace men and promised to join the Anti-Tammany Club at its meeting next Thursday.

Catholies Condomn Duffy's Course. DALLAS, Tex., March 10 .- Tom Duffy, the infurlated Catholic who shot at J. W. Hile, the A. P. A. lecturer, Thursday night, and succeeded in wounding two innocentipersons, is locked up here. He was out under a $50 bond for a time but was afterward surrend-ered. His course is condemned by the Cath-olics, some of whom declare that Duffy has not been inside a church in twenty years. The wounded men will recover.

Hill at Denison. DENISON, Tex., March 10 .- J. W. Hill, the A. P. A. lecturer, arrived here yesterday. He had a body guard armed with rifles. The excitement is great and some difficulty is being experienced in obtaining a hall for him. The Mayor has refused to allow him the City Hail. His adherents say that he will lecture here if blood has to flow.

VIGOR OF MEN

He Leaves His Entire Estate to Mother

LAWYER KORTJOHN: SAYS THAT ALL OTHER CLAIMS WILL BE CONTESTED.

No Mention Made of Marion Beis-What Her Intentions Are-Mr. Kortjohn Is Made Administrator Without Bond-He Says the Estate Is Really Value-

A copy of the will of the late J. Gaston Soulard was filed last evening in the Probate Court, by Henry Kortjohn, Esq. It leaves all property of the testator to his mother and sister and names Heary Kortjohn as executor without bond. The name of Marion Ries, who professes to be the common law wife of J. Gaston Soulard is not mentioned.

The will follows:

THE WILL.

I. J. Gaston Soulard, of the city of St. Louis and State of Missouri, do make and declare this my last will and testament, hereby reveling all former wills by me made.

By me made, and my dister, Mary Soulard, and my dister, Mary Soulard, and my dister, Mary Soulard, all of my property, error, mary sonal or mixed, and wherever aimstead to have and to hold the same usto them made to have and to held the same usto them made forever. In case either my sister or mother should die before me, the survivor of them shall have my whole estate.

2. I nominate and appoint Henry Kortjohn as executor of this my last will and testiment, and I request and direct that he shall not be required to give bond.

Witness my hand and seal on the 22d day of February, A. D., 1894.

Seigned, sealed, published and declared by the testator, the above-named J. Gaston Soulard, to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the last will and testament, in the presence of us, the last will and testament, in the presence of us, the last will and testament, in the presence of us, the last will and testament, in the presence of us, the last will and testament, in the presence of us, the last will be searched and declared by the last will be searched and a distament, in the presence of us, the last will and testament, in the presence of us, the last will be searched and declared by the list will be searched and declared by the last will be searched and declared by the la Grounds on Which the Supreme Court Will Be Asked to Dismiss. Mr. Leverett Bell, as attorney for Building Commissioner Reid, furnished City Counselor Marshall this morning with a copy of his brief on the motion to quash and dismiss the writ of certiorari granted by the Supreme Court against Judge Valliant.

Mr. Bell argues that the writ granted by the Supreme Court and returnable on March the Supreme Court and returnable on March 13 next was improvidently granted. He claims the court has no jurisdiction in the case of the State ex rel. Reid vs. Walbridge, except it be removed there by writ of error or appeal.

The case was pending in the Circuit Court undetermined, and no final judgment had been reached and entered in that court when the writ was issued, and besides, he claims, Walbridge has no personal interest in the subject matter in the original case. The issues involved in the case are not such as to give the Court jurisdiction under sec. 12 of art. 6 of the State Constitution. The Court will not hear indirect by resort to certiorari a case which by the State Constitution it has no jurisdiction of by writ of error or appeal.

Where an appeal lies, certiorari does not lie. He cites several State cases to sustain this position and shows that the writ of certiorari will issue only when there is no adequate mode of review by writ of error or appeal.

HARRISON AUTOMATIC TELEPHONE. R. C. Kerens of St. Louis Among the Promoters of the Improvement. CHICAGO, III., March 10.—R. C. Kerens of St. Louis and Col. C. M. Ferrit of Kansas City arrived in Chicago, 10day to attend a meeting of the promoters of the new Harrison automatic telep was held this afternoon.

Mr. Kerens said that a franchise will be asked for to enable the company to begin operations in Chicago.

The Harrison telephone has an automatic switchboard, which relieves the user of the telephone of the necessity of negotiating with the "girl atc entral."

SUSTAINS THE REFEREE

No Ground for the Removal of Receiver Judge Klein this morning overruled the exceptions to the report of the referee in the matter of the removal of Samuel Bowman, receiver of the Western Distilling Co. Certain creditors of the distilling company flied a petition for Bowman's removal, on grounds, which, if established, would in Judge Klein's opinion, have required Bowman's removal in the interest of an honest administration of the estate. The petition was referred to Arba N. Orane, who reported that the changes were not supported by evidence sufficient to warrant the removal.

Judge Klein commends the referse for the great latitude he accorded the petitioners in the introduction of evidence to sustain their charges.

Judge Klein remarks that there is much recling in the complaints against Bowman, and very little ground, if any, for the complaints. The steamship Trave, which sailed from Bremen, Feb. 27, has arrived at New York. The St. Louis mail, which she carried, will be delivered to-morrow morning. The steamship Britannic has arrived at New York, and the St. Louis mail on board will be delivered Monday morning. The European mail closes to-morrow morning at 7s. m.

laided by the Police and a Dozen Smokers Captured.

Whites, Negroes and Chinamen Composed the Crowd Given a Ride.

ONE WHITE WOMAN AND FIVE COLORED WOMEN WERE AMONG THE SMOKERS.

How the Raid Was Made-A Foul Den-A Number of Those Taxen Into Curtody Almost Completely Prostrated by the Fumes-Capt. Boy1 Issues an Order in Regard to Such Joints.

This morning at 2 o'clock Sergt, wam Murray and Officers Wilson, Madden and White of the Central District raided the Chinese top-joints in the rear of 717 Walnut street, and captured eleven flends of mixed nationof late these cess-pools of iniquity in the Chinese quarter have been operating in de-fiance of all law, and those addicted to the use have become bolder than ever in their visits to the "Chink's hop-joints." The police have also been re-ceiving complaints from mothers and husbands whose daughters and wives have fallen a victim to the practice of hitting the pipe, and had become frequenters of the Chinese establishments. The proprietors of these places have laughed at the officers on the beat when warned to be careful and not try to open the doors of their filthy establishments of the general public. Joe Jeu has try to open the doors of their filthy estab-lishments to the general public. Joe Jeu has been particularly indifferent to the comis of the police, so last night and early this morning a watch was kept on their "joints" until a large crowd of smokers had WHITES. BLACKS AND CHINAMEN. At a given signal Sergt. Murray and his officers entered the alley, and while two officers guarded the only avenues of es-cape from the place, two others placed their weight against the doors of the ill-smelling holes and placed all the inmates under arrest. In addition to Joe Jeu and John Hong, the propretors, the Celestials, John Hong, Joe Sing and Ja Jas, were present. May Bennett and Wm. Seymour were the only white persons in the place, but Della Walker, Ida Johnson, Bessie Payne, Ida May Boyines and Blanche Blackwood, all colored, were, it is said, also smoking the poppy extract.

Shortly after the officers entered the place the patrol wagon backed into the alley and the entire crowd of negroes, whites and Chinese were taken whites and Chinese were taken to the Four Courts. The paraphernalia, necessary to the smokers, was also captured and taken to the calaboose as evidence. It consisted of three pipes, several bowls, three or four trays and hop-lamps and a quantity of the "dope" which the Chinaman's guests had been consuming.

The place where the crewd of gleven was found is a small room 10x14 with no means of ventilation. The fumes of the fascinating drug arising from several pipes hung heavily on the atmosphere, and a person unused to such conditions would be unable to penetrate further than a lew steps into this horrible den, where the Chinman, the negro and white lie down and smoke together.

BOYD ISSUES AN ORDER. When Capt. Boyd of the Central District arrived at his office early this morning and saw the number of prisoners captured in the "joint" he issued orders at once to the cers on watch in the district between Marofficers on watch in the district between Market and Walnut, seventh and Eighth streets, to keep a close watch hereafter on all Chinese smoking establishments and to raid them whenever any but Chinese were seen congregating in these places. A number of those captured in the raid this morning were aimost prostrated from the effects of the drug and the fumes they had been inhaling. DISPOSITION OF CASES.

The cases of Joe Jas, Joe Sing and Joe Jeu were dismissed in the police court on the payment of costs, and John Hong's case was nolle prossed. The cases of the negroes were continued until March 18. May Bennett, another of the prisoners, was too sick nett, another of the prisoners, was too sick to appear in court this morning and her case was continued until March 13. She is a woman of immoral character and lives at $20 Market street. She has been smoking opium for about a year or more at different intervals, but denies that she is addicted to the use of the drug to that extent that she has the opium habit. She is said to be a friend of Seymour's, and was with him last night when the raid was made. She was admitted to bond with charles Life, the saloon-keeper at Sixth and Elm streets, as security.

The present rise is almost unexampled in rapidity, and is due to a rainfall of two inches, several days ago, and also to the breaking of the fee gorge, which released a large quantity of water. Mr. Hammond expected high southerly winds to-day, and he got them. This binst will were to the west and north late to-night and may bring rain. The forecast is cold weather for to-morrow and increased cold for to-morrow might, although the fall may not be down to the freezing point.

Death of Mrs. J. D. Goldman. News has been received from Lethia Springs, Ga., announcing the death at 9 Springs, Ga., announcing the death at 9 o'clock this morning of Mrs. Sarah Goldman, wife of J. D. Goldman, President of the St. Louis Cotton Exchange. Death was the result of a complication of allments, brought on by a severe attack of the grip some four months ago, but decease was apparently improving until yesterday, when a telegram was received by Mr. Goldman calling him to his wife's bedside. He hurriedly left last night for the South. He, however, did not reach there in time to again meet his wife allve. Mrs. Goldman's death will be mourned by all who knew her. The interment will take place in this city and members of the Cotton Exchange will attend in a body, and that institution will probably adjourn on the day of the funeral.

Words and Blows.

DES MOINES, Io., March 10.—In the cloak room during the discussion of the temperance bill to-day Senator Brower had an alter-cation with S. H. Shoemaker, editor of the cation with S. H. Shoemaker, editor of the Hampton Chronicle. Brower entered the room and Shoemaker spoke to him. Brower asked if he was not editor of the Chronicle and then said he desired nothing to do with him. Shoemaker followed him and asked if Brower had not promised to retain the present prohibition law if elected. Brower replied he had not, and any man who said so was a liar. A heated discussion ensued and Shoemaker said Brower was a liar. He had scarcely uttered the words when Brower struck him in the eye and followed it up with two more blows. Before any serious damage was done the men were separated.

INTENSE INTEREST IN THE PAS-TIME CLUB'S INDOOR GAMES.

Billy Joyce Signs a Contract to Play

The inaugural indoor athletic games of the Pastime Athletic Club, which take place at the Armory Hall, Nineteenth and Pine streets, this evening, will no do first indoor amateur athletic events tha and the interest in them is somethin ocal men, and some rare sport is promised

L. D. Cabanne by Trainer Harry Aitken of the Pastime Club, who says all his men are in splendid condition. The forty-five-yard cramble will bring out such good scratch men as Hitchings, Eltman and Jones, who made his mark at Yale. This trio should get up a pretty good race. Charley Eaton, who has a one-foot handi-cap in this event, is also expected to be in the hunt at the finish and Haggerty, Ewing, Joel, Ravold and Sprick may surprise the knowing ones. The Olympic mateur Athletic Club members expect their crack scratch man, Jas. Fleming, will secure first prize in the two-mile run Hitchcock, Jost, Brucker and W. H.

W. H. Hitchings Hitchings are sure to keep him on the bustle from the start. Charley Parker and scratch L. Knox, both will lock horns in the half-mile run, and a contest well worth witnessing should Powell, will probably have to beat six feet to win the running high jump, as Fuller, Beck, Whittemore and Brooke will conextend him. This event is expected to prove one of the most exciting of the evening. The hurdle is another event in which much interest is taken. Whitte-more and Cabanne, the two cracks between whom there is intense rivalry, will compete.

Mr. Tarleton said he believed that reclprocal arrangements would be entered into between the West and the East by which high class and honest racing would be very much benefited. Some parts of the agreement will be referred to the Congress for final action. nal action.

It is not generally known that Mr. John M. Sellers was originally one of the leading stockholders in the Madison race track When the track was constructed, he roofed the stables, grand stand and betting-ring and accepted 800 shares of stock in the association as payment for his work from President Hambrick and promoter Cole Ullman. This fact demonstrates that Mr. Sellers has no objection to drifting into the race track business when a good opportunity presents itself. Stranger things than his securing control of the Fair Grounds track have happened.

They don't spare their horses in the antipodes. At a meeting recently held in New Zealand a 4-year-old colt, Vogengang, by Burlington-Psyche, after winning the Wellington cup at one and a half miles with 108 pounds up, was pulled out the same afternoon and won a six-furing handicap with 121 pounds up. The first race was run in 2:41 and the second in 1:16½. The colt had quite a hard run in the long distance race. Sir Modred performed a similar feat when he was racing, and Mortemer did it in England when he had been shipped thither for safety during the France-Prussian war. JOYCE HAS SIGNED.

The Third Baseman to Play With Wash ington the Coming Season. Billy Joyce affixed his signature to a Wash ington contract in this city yesterday after noon and the document is now in pos of "White Wings" George Tebeau, who left for the national capital last night. Tebear son. Joyce expects to report in Washington March 19 and is confident Manager Schmelz will detail him for duty at his usual position, third base. Charley Farrell, who was sold the Senators last year. Brooklyn traded Joyce to Washington in return for Second Baseman Danny Richardson two years ago, but the third baseman refused to wear a Wagner brothers only offered him $1,800 and e demanded $600 more and remained idle al year rather than sign.

President Von der Ahe and Manager Wat kins wanted Joyce last season. The Wagners were willing to trade him for "Kid" Gleason, which, however, was not satisfactory to St. Louis. This season Joyce will receive a salary in the taumediste neighborhood of $1,500. Although

About the time George lost his grip, Pat Tebeau commenced to come to the front, and his reputation as a level-headed player is second to aone, Billy Joyce was playing in the Texas League when Charley Comiskey advised John N. Ward to secure him for the Brooklyn Brotherhood team. When the Brooklyn Brotherhood team. When the Brotherhood dispanded he joined the famous Boston Association Champions, and in 1882 he returned to Brooklyn. Last year he did not touch a ball.

Base Ball Gossip.

George Pinckney, who covered third for the Browns two years ago, has signed with the Grand Browss two years ago, has signed with the Grand Rapids of the Western League. Gleason has signed with St. Louis, and Von der Ahe has a great quartet of twirlers in Arthur Clark-son, Breitenstein, wavey and Kid Gleason. No club in the league has a stronger corps of pitchers, ears Tim Murnaue. First baseman Ted Larkin will be released by First baseman Ted Larkin will be released by Washington and enter one of the minor leagues. Third baseman Mulvey wishes to play with the Senators this year, and may be given a chance. Tom Hamsey stopped over in Louisville Thursday on his way to Savannah, where he will play in the Southern League. Tom says he hasn't taken a drink in years, and he looks harder, stronger and lighter than he ever was when he pitched here. The once famous south-paw expresses confidence that he will be in the big league before the season is six weeks old.

President Von der Ahe stated yesterday that he would manage the Browns himself this sesson with the assistance of Seretary George Munson. It has been decided to play Miller on third base, provided Dick Buckley resumes work behind the bast, Judge Withrow rendered judgment against Chris Von der Ahe-for $1.42.12 due the Pendiston heirs of Cincinnati as unpaid rent on the Pendiston house bail grounds for five years. The suit is the result of the war between the Buckley and the control of the war between the Buckley and the control of the only desirable grounds and had to take the Pendiston property.

The Great Leader and His Band Arrive This Morning.

STARTLING COMPOSITION TO BE PLAYED AT HIS ONCERT.

The Noted Bandmister Discusses Opera He Has Just Completed for De Wolf Hopper- He Also Talks of His Other Compositions and His Plans-Glad to Get Back Tere.

John Philip Sousa arrived in St. Louis this morning at 7 o'clock from Indianapolis, acafternoon and evening at Grand Music Hall.

The famous leader isin fine spirits. The ong winter run in New York gave him an opportunity to perfect his musicians in con-certed work, and on the two weeks' trip, so far, the reception accorded him by the public the various cities he has played, been more flattering than The band open a five weeks' engagement in San Francisco at the Mid-Winter Fair a week from Moiday. Thence, playing back across the country, they return to New York for five weeks at the Madison Square Garden and then, after a three weeks' run into Canada, they ettle down at Maniattan Beach for a ten weeks' stay. After this engagement is finished they will once more return to St.

Louis and the Exposition. The bandmaster conversed a little while this morning with the Post-Disparch reporter about his present visit and the longer one to which everybody is looking forward to with so much pleasure, and also as to the winter.

A COMPOSITION OF INTEREST. "I am really glad to be once more in St. Louis." he said "even for so short a stay. Lonisans have always been more than cordial to me and my people. We our concerts here, but the piece which is the most important of all is Tschalkowsky's of whom consider it too sensational. Others assert that it is most powerful. I consider it a production of wonderful dramatic power, and however it may be regarded it should be heard by all lovers of music.

"It describes the taking of Moscow by the French troops under Napoleon. All through the earlier portions of it can be heard the strains of the Marseillaise, but toward the end the French song of liberty is crushed out by the Russian hymn, and you know that Bonaparte is in retreat. We will play this as the opening number for the evening programme, and I presume it will create the gramme, and I presume it will create the same diversity of opinion here that it has elsewhere.

"I shall introduce during my stay at Exposition a good many novelities, which I do not think it wise to discuss at the present time. You know there are so many imitators now-a-days who grasp at every idea that it would not be safe. I am now at work on a suite, similar in character to the Destruction of Fompeli, which I hope will be a success. I have also composed a suite descriptive of Longfellow's 'Tales of a Wayside inn,' which I shall play here in the fall.

"Only last week I finished a new opera for De Wolf Hopper. It is entitled "El Capitan." The libretto is by Charles Kline, the New York librettist, who has been so successful. It was in this instance he has gotten up a fine thing. The scene is laid in Peru, and, while I have never been there. I think my music will have more local color in it than if I had. I have always found this to be the case with myself, and other writers and musicians have also noted this. I don't recall the name of the poet who wrote some work describing the sea, so wonderful in the accurateness of the details that everyone thought the man must have been brought up on the seashore, while in truth he had never seen the ocean.

Bad Case. Two Doctors No Goo Tries Cuticura. First Set Helps. Four Sets Completely Cure.

Our baby Pearl was born Nov. 29, 1891. From her birth she had Scall Head until she was four months old, then it became worse and came out in small white pimples, and then spread to be large yellow scabs. We tried two doctors, but they could not do it any good. So we tried CUTICURA REMEDIES, giving her a thorough washing her a thorough washing three times a day with CUTICURA SOAP, and then using three times a day with CUTICURA The first set we tried helped her, and before we used four sets she was perfectly cured. At the age of six months our baby weighed thirty-four pounds. Her skin is fair and smooth, and scalp perfectly well. Portrait inclosed. Colgate of New York gave free use of a building in this city to the Messiah Baptist Church colored of which the church members quarreled over Pastor Conway and Mr. Colgate served notice upon him that he must vacate the pulpit. In spite of this Conway continued to preach and on March 6, 1892, E. O. Carpenter, representing Mr. Colgate, sent a policeman into the pulpit, who laid his hand lightly on Conway's arm to attract his attention. Conway asked if he was under arrest. He received a negative reply.

asked if he was under arrest. He received a negative reply.

"Then you are assaulting me and disturbing the meeting," replied the proacher.

Conway was then picked up bodily and deposited on the sidewalk. Conway claimed that the action was lilegal, the policeman having no warrant, and sued for damages.

The jury yesterday returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $2,500. This was the fourth trial of the case.

The Track of Progress

In all the scientific advancement which he tracted more attention and certainly nothing which is of more vital consequence to all than that which has been made in the treatment of disease. There are thousands of sici persons and invalids all over the country who have until recently been unable to avail themselves of the most scientific medical aid Through the thoughtfulness and kindness of that great benefactor of mankind, Di Greene of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, all those who are suffering from any form of disease may avail themselves of his great system of treating and curing disease all over the land through letter correspondence. People can consult him by letter ab solutely free of charge. Dr. Greene is the most successful specialist in curing all nervous and chronic diseases; he is the discoverer of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letter eceived by him and writes the patient a full description of the case. The doctor uses nothing but harmless vegetable remedles and has had wonderful success in curing disease through letter correspondence.
